1:30 PM - 2:30 PM	Do you Want to be Popular...or do you Want to Lead? After this session, you will be able to: • Create your personal brand. • Utilize participative styles such as Facilitative, Servant, or Situational Leadership effectively. • Create your own success story by being your best self. Speakers: Saria Saccocio
2:30 PM - 3:15 PM	Charting the Course for Change: The Status of Women in SC During this session, we will share our Status of Women in SC Report, the product of over a year of collaborative research between Center for Women and partners across the state. The Report explores four key areas in which SC's women lack equitable access to opportunity: Leadership, Health & Safety, Education and Economic Security. In addition to presenting the data, we will offer recommendations for solutions and facilitate discussion around ways that each of us can become change agents within our own communities. After the conference, we will be available to connect and consult with individuals or groups interested in utilizing our model for community impact. After this session, you will be able to: • Identify systemic disparities affecting women in SC across four key indicator issues, including leadership, health & safety, education and economic security. • Identify specific opportunities for advancing equity. • Connect with opportunities to facilitate change through collaboration and civic engagement. Speakers: John Zinsser , Ali Titus
3:15 PM - 3:30 PM	Break
3:30 PM - 4:15 PM	Raising Change: Inspiring Leadership in the Next Generation The change we champion is rarely about us, but there is reward in the sacrifice. Attendees will be empowered as Rozalynn delves into how selfless heroines perpetuated historical change, and shares her personal sacrifices and successes for change in health policy and her daughter's entrepreneurial journey with GaBBY Bows. After this session, you will be able to: · Become more settled in sacrifice and slow, good, frustrating, constant and inevitable change. · Be encouraged by historical change and experiences of modern day change efforts and successes. · Leave practical tips on how to raise change agents. Speakers: Rozalynn Goodwin
4:15 PM - 5:15 PM	The Career Audit: Get from Where You Are to Where You Want to Be

Building a career takes time, energy and focus, and sometimes we're so busy doing our jobs that we may forget about our careers. "Your Career Audit: How to Get from Where You Are to Where You Want to Be" is an energetic shot-in-the-arm to remind us all to keep an eye not just on where we are but also on where we're going and where we want to be. Vickie Austin, a long-time business and career coach, presents a checklist to help you build your credibility and audit your visibility and your brand. In this highly interactive presentation she'll share practical and actionable ideas for all of us as we manage our own careers.
