Directions to Self Regional Medical Center

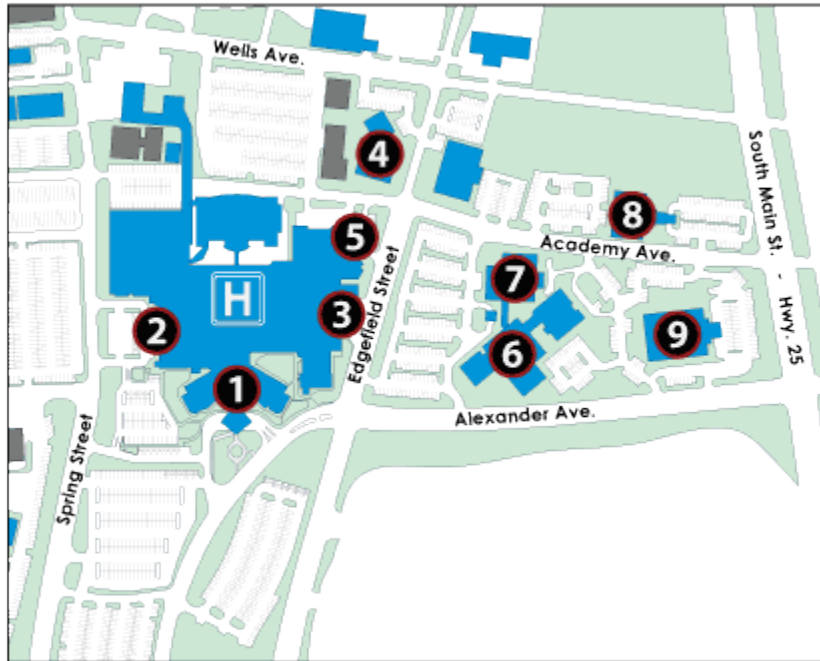

From Columbia via I-26 / Newberry / Highway 34.
This route is about 80 miles from downtown Columbia.
From Columbia head west on I-26 toward Spartanburg

Take Exit #76 / Newberry and turn left at the stop sign onto Highway 219, which will take you over the interstate. This highway leads you into Newberry, which is about five miles.
At the second red light, turn left onto the Highway 34 Bypass. Follow the signs to Greenwood, which is about 42 miles.
At the second red light, turn right to stay on the Highway 34 Bypass.
Follow the bypass around Newberry.
The bypass will end at a red light, where a sign will direct you to turn left to stay on Highway 34 and head to Greenwood.
About five miles out of Newberry, the highway forks. Follow the sign to Greenwood by taking the right fork.
This road will lead you through Silverstreet and Chappels and then past the Lake Greenwood Dam to Ninety Six, home of the Star Fort National Historic Site (from the Revolutionary War). Stay on Highway 34 through the town of Ninety Six; it's about nine miles to Greenwood.
As you get closer to Greenwood, you will drive under the Highway 25 Bypass and keep going straight toward the city.
After going under the bypass, you will turn left at the third red light, which should be Marshall Road. There is a CVS Pharmacy on the right across the street.
Immediately when you turn left you will pass across South Main Street and keep going straight; a BP gas station is on the left.
At the next red light, which is the intersection with Edgefield Street, Self Regional Medical Center will be on your far right.
Take a right onto Edgefield Street and then a left into the Visitors Parking lot.

Directions to Self Regional Medical Center from Charlotte via I-85 / Spartanburg
This route is about 140 miles from downtown Charlotte.

From Charlotte, take I-85 South toward Spartanburg.
In Spartanburg, take I-26 East toward Columbia.
Take Exit 52 / Highway 56 / Clinton; turn right toward Clinton.
After about a mile, turn left onto the Highway 56 truck route, which takes you around the city of Clinton. A directional sign shows Greenwood.
Highway 72 merges with 56 at the first red light; continue on the truck route.
Go past the intersection where 56 splits off from 72.
Turn left at the next intersection to stay on 72 West; a sign will point left to Greenwood.
Hwy 72 will pass through the villages of Mountville and Cross Hill and then pass over Lake Greenwood.
As you enter Greenwood, you'll pass several manufacturing plants and the Civic Center (on the left).
After two minor red lights, you will turn left at the next red light in order to stay on Highway 221.

You will go through two red lights and then turn right at the third light on to Marshall Road. Stay on Marshall Road as it crosses South Main Street. The hospital is two blocks on the right. Taking a right at the next light will lead to the visitor parking lot.
